

Stephanie Ann Stanley Artworks

Welcome to the exciting world of Stephanie Ann Stanley! Thank you for stopping by and viewing this unique artist's first public Chicago showing.

Ms Stanley represents a spiritual experience, evoking the power of color and texture in her work. A true "color field" painter (such as Rothko and Noland), she is concerned with exploring the effect of pure color on canvas. Being the daughter of an artist, Stephanie was compelled to express herself at an early age. Inspired by dreams, meditations, and experiences, her collection is filled with variant textures and vibrant colors. While abstract impressionism is non-representational with regard to form, her work nevertheless represents very real and specific ideas. Stephanie's art is created with oil on canvas in varying dimensions. Stephanie Stanley's paintings vary in size from multi-panel 12 by 12 inch paintings up to 5 feet by 12 feet creations!

Ms Stanley's work is on display in upscale residences in Miami, Chicago, Los Angeles, London and many more cities. Her paintings can be seen in many television productions and has been used on E! Networks' Flight for Fame production and many independent Sundance films. Currently, Stephanie's work can be seen on Fox's Hell's Kitchen® series. Her latest picture can be viewed online at www.stephaniestanley.com.
